

Vitamin Sea – Le Morne Discovery

Embark on a private boat tour and discover the most iconic spots the West coast has to offer including a delicious local barbecue on the beach! Each morning on the west coast of Mauritius, you can meet wild dolphins who approach the coast to socialize, relax and play. It is home to two species of dolphins: bottlenose dolphins and spinner dolphins. Typically, you will observe either one or the other but if you are very lucky, you can meet both species, which happens sometimes! Your own private lunch spot on Bénitiers Island, away from the crowds, offers stunning views of Le Morne mountain. The crew will prepare a homemade Mauritian barbecue including : garlic bread, fresh fish marinated in lemon, shrimp skewers, honey-grilled chicken, and salad. A vegetarian option is also available upon request. In addition, a variety of beverages will be available including soft drinks, beers, local ti punch, and rosé or white wine. Following your delectable Mauritian lunch, enjoy a relaxing time on the beach while savouring the popular grilled banana flambé. Homemade banana bread is also served in the morning.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION

- Please note that the number of dolphins on site and the behaviour of the animals change on a day-to-day basis. We don't control those two things because they're wild and they can't predict encounters beforehand. Our team adjusts and makes every effort to offer a memorable interaction.
- To ensure your comfort, all snorkelling equipment will be provided on board
- All passengers are required to wear life jackets if need be and follow the safety rules and guidelines provided by the crew.
- Any damage or loss caused to the boat or equipment by passengers will be the responsibility of the individual or group who caused the damage or loss.
